Failure to comply with this policy constitutes a violation for both the individual in possession of the card and the individual named on the card. Cardholders are required to report to the Athletics Office and meet with a Facility Manager in order to retrieve a JCU ID Card that has been confiscated after misuse.

4.4 Entrance/Exit Fitness Center

Entry and exit from the Fitness Center must always be through the main entrance/exit on the Residence Gianicolo-Vicolo della Penitenza 26. Individuals entering or exiting through other doors are subject to disciplinary action (see JCU ID Card Violations above).

4.5 Risk management

Risk of Participation

All athletes and parents must realize the risk of serious injury, which may be a result of any Intecollegiate Sports and Recreational activities participation.

Participation in intercollegiate athletics is an elective activity and a privilege. Coaches are committed to helping each athlete achieve his/her highest level of play.

Each student-athlete, Faculty, Staff must accept the responsibility that goes with being a member of a team and/or a group of Intercollegiate and Recreational Sport activities.

All team members need to adhere to these policies and they need to uphold to these standards.

All injuries, which occur while participating in sport and recreational activities, should be reported as follows:

- 1) Injury occurred to a student-athlete during official trainings and matches. As official trainings and matches (friendly or competitive) have to be intended only those scheduled by the Athletics Department and preventively communicate to the coaches and athletes. The reports of this kind of injury have to be done both by the student-athlete injured and the coach by completing the Student Sports Incident Form

- 2) Injury occurred to a student during official Intramural Sport Tournaments. As official Intramural Sport Tournaments have to be intended only those scheduled by the Athletics Department and preventively communicate to the University Community. The reports of this kind of injury have to be done both by the student-athlete injured and the coach\ Athletic's Coordinator by completing the Student Sports Incident Form
- 3) Injury occurred to any Athletics Member (students, faculty, staff), during one of the official recreational sports activities. As official recreational sports activities have to be intended only those scheduled by the Athletics Department and preventively communicate to the University Community. The report of this kind of injury has to be done both by the Athletics Member injured and the instructor using The Student Sports Incident Form.

Once a member (students, faculty, staff) of any Intercollegiate, Intramural sport and Recreational activities are treated by a physician, him/her must obtain the doctor's permission to return to the activity. This needs to be presented to the Athletics Office to have access to any sports and training activities. Failure to do so will jeopardize the membership and participation of the person to any sport activities.

4.6 Class Attendance

In order to participate on any athletic team, each student-athlete must have satisfied all of the John Cabot University eligibility requirements prior to participation.

Regular class attendance is an important student obligation. Students are responsible for all course work conducted in class meetings, whether they are in attendance or not. Absence from class does not excuse the student from responsibility for class work. Planned class absences for foreseeable personal circumstances or official University business (i.e., an extraordinary athletic competition planned by the University) should be communicated by the student to the professor prior to the absence. (Please notice that excused class absences need to be approved by the Academic Dean)

4.7 Conflicts in extracurricular activities

The athletic department recognizes that each student should have the opportunity for a broad range of experiences in the area of extracurricular activities, and to this end, will attempt to schedule events in a manner to minimize conflicts.

Students have the responsibility to do everything they can to avoid continuous conflicts. This would include being cautious about being members or participate in too many activities where conflicts are clear to happen.

4.8 E-Mail Usage Policies

The John Cabot University Athletics Department and Student Services Department have established e-mail as a primary vehicle for official communications with Athletics members (students, faculty, staff) and coaches:

- 1) All Degree Seeking Students, have an official John Cabot University e-mail address established and assigned by the Technology Services Department. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this address.

- 2) All Study Abroad Students have an email address submitted to the university during their admissions process. All university communications sent via e-mail will be sent to this address.
- 3) Students are expected to check their official e-mail address on a frequent and consistent basis in order to stay current with the Athletics and Student Services Offices. A student's failure to receive and read the Athletics and Student Services Offices communication delivered to his/her e-mail address in a timely manner does not absolve the student from knowing and complying with the content and instructions of such communications.
- 4) Students are held responsible of checking the email and read the university communications sent to them. If the student does not receive any communications to her/his email, he /she are held responsible to communicate her\his correct contact information to the Registrar's Office.

V. Facility Utilization

5.1 Use of facilities

No JCU Athletics members (students, faculty, staff, alumni) should use the equipment or facilities of the JCU Fitness Center and/or fields outside rented by the University during the scheduled practice times without the approval of the Athletics Department. The use of these facilities out of the scheduled practice is seriously forbidden.

The use of facilities is regulated according with the following guidelines and rules:

- The JCU Athletic Department and Student Services shall not grant use of facilities when for any reason it is determined such use may not be in the best interest of the John Cabot University,
- John Cabot University is NOT responsible for accidents, injury or loss of individual property in any of its facilities.
